

400 Attend Press Club Welcome for Angels

Players, Officials 'Saluted'

An official Palm Springs welcome to the Los Angeles Angels was voiced by nearly 400 persons as the Desert Press Club at Palm Springs rolled out the welcome mat for the American League baseball club last night at Press Club headquarters in the Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel.

City officials, Chamber of Commerce leaders, representatives of all media and other guests gathered to officially salute the ball-players, club officials and owners.

GENE AUTRY and Bob Reynolds, owners of the new American League entry, acknowledged the reception and Bill Rigney and Fred Haney, manager and general manager respectively, addressed the assemblage.

Rigney predicted that "if this weather holds, we ought to be in fine shape" six weeks from now when spring training here ends. The Angels are the first major league baseball team to train in the Coachella Valley area and were brought to Palm Springs following long negotiation with the Desert Angels Committee.

HANEY, nostalgically, said that the appearance of Angels in uniform on the ballfield at the Palm Springs Polo Grounds yesterday had culminated three and a half months of strenuous effort on the part of Reynolds, Autry and the rest of the Angel organization.

"We've accomplished in that period what it has taken other teams years to do," said Haney. "Don't sell us short," he declared, referring to the upcoming American League pennant scramble.

Also introduced were Don Wells and Bob Kelly, tagged as the "Voice of the Angels," who will broadcast all Angel games this season.

DESERT PRESS CLUB President George Ringwald presided at the meeting and introduced Los Angeles Times columnist Art Ryan who amused the audience with his droll wit during a short talk.

An earlier feature of the Desert Press Club meeting saw Ringwald relinquish the microphone to Desert Sun reporter Fred Weigel, who in turn presented a gift to Don Klotzbuecher, Sun managing editor, who leaves March 7 for Wisconsin where he has purchased his own publication. Klotzbuecher was the first president of the Desert Press Club at Palm Springs and the gift was in recognition of his guidance of the club during its formative years.

Lumumba Backers Cut Into Congo

Mobutu Forces May Be Isolated From Capital

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo — Troops of Antoine Gizenga's leftist Stanleyville regime were reported striking deep into Equatorial Province today in a new thrust threatening to cut off the forces of Congo army commander Gen. Joseph Mobutu from their Leopoldville capital.

Reliable sources said this column, moving from the Lumumbist stronghold of Stanleyville, had captured Ikela, in Equatorial Province, about 175 miles to the southwest.

REPORTS OF THE new drive came shortly after the Leopoldville government gave the United Nations an "ultimatum" to clear another Stanleyville rebel column out of the Kasai Province capital of Luluabourg.

Premier Joseph Ileo's regime gave the U. N. six hours, beginning at noon today, to clear Luluabourg of rebels. Otherwise, it said, the Leopoldville government would tackle the job itself.

THE U. N., HOWEVER, apparently was not taking the ultimatum too seriously. In reply to it, a U. N. spokesman said: "We do not know what the... statement means, what action they want us to take or what action they mean to take themselves."

The U. N. spokesman added that the situation was quiet in Luluabourg, according to latest reports, and therefore U. N. forces there are not taking any unusual action.

GEN. MOBUTU'S troops are concentrated in the Bumba region, some 225 miles north of Ikela.

Reports reaching here said the Stanleyville column split at Ikela with one branch heading for Bende. The other was reported pushing toward Lomela, a North Kasai town about 100 miles south of Ikela.

The second spearhead was reported to have reached the west Kasai town of Luebo, between Leopoldville and the newly captured town of Luluabourg.

MRS. LOIS ALDRICH, in foreground, received minor face lacerations in an accident on Highway 111 just west of Miles Avenue early this morning. Mrs. Aldrich's car struck another vehicle that was parked beside the road, disabled, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Mrs. Dorothy McIntosh and two of her four children were sitting in the car while the other children played in the desert. No one was seriously injured. The children are: Brenda Kay, 3; Duane, 8; Michael, 5; and Douglas, 2. (P.S. NewsPhoto)

Snow, Icy Rain Hit Midwest

Flood waters derailed a passenger train and drove hundreds more persons from their homes today in the rain-sogged, tornado-whipped South.

Heavy rains, including nearly 6 inches in 24 hours at Atlanta, lashed wide areas of Dixie and four southeastern states were put on a fresh tornado alert in the wake of twisters that skipped down at 11 spots in three states Friday.

SNOW AND freezing rain belted the Midwest, and ice slowed traffic to a crawl during the morning rush hour in Indianapolis.

No relief appeared in sight for the flood-weary South, where more than 6,000 persons were temporarily homeless because of high waters and at least seven persons had drowned during a week of rains and floods.

Two engines and a mail car of the New Orleans-bound Piedmont Limited toppled from a washed-out embankment 50 feet into the raging Tallapoosa River near Milledgeville, Ala.

ALABAMA HIGHWAY patrolmen hiked two miles through mud and water and pulled engineer John Smith, 70, from the cab minutes before the engine sank in the murky flood.

Authorities began moving out families "by the droves" today at Phenix City, Ala., across the swollen Chattahoochee River from Columbus, Ga. Amphibious vehicles from Ft. Benning, Ga., stood by to help. Water stood 30 inches deep in the city jail.

TWENTY FAMILIES were moved to higher ground at Milledgeville, in central Georgia, at Hattiesburg, Miss., hardest hit of all southern towns, residents still braced for the crest of the flooding Leaf River.

NEVER... BUT NEVER... BEFORE
Has any development met a long unfilled demand for really small homes for a few month's winter living, or retirement, and yet provided the type of neighborhood and protections usually found only in expensive communities. No more need to buy costly lots or $20,000 homes for a few years in the sun. Here, only 15 minutes out on Ramon Road are 20 retired navy and airforce officers, doctors, dentists, engineers and business executives. Their homes range from $5,900 to $11,000 on 99 year leases of private land — the same sort of title as Stanford University and Irvine Estates, Balboa. Adults only. No "keeping up with the Joneses," peace, simplicity and "economy with status." 1/4 acre lots, city utilities, free TV, trees — only $12 month. Only a lease protects you against re-sale to undesirable neighbors in small homes. Save capital to build Truly a unique community. No other like it. Investigate. Drive out Ramon Road. Folder free and no high pressures.

Birthday Girl Naps While Guests Play

Pink and blue streamers and balloons decorated the patio of Rabbi and Mrs. Joseph Hurwitz' Monterey Road home Sunday afternoon, when Mrs. Hurwitz hosted a birthday party for their one-year-old daughter, Doreen Lee.

Doreen wore a pink organza dress, a gold heirloom bracelet and a gold necklace set with a tiny diamond, which she received as a birthday gift.

A group of toddlers sat at a table centered with a gingerbread and candy house, a beautiful heart-shaped cake and favors of toys and dolls.

The young guests enjoyed themselves romping in the flowered garden while the guest of honor enjoyed a nap. The excitement was too much for little Doreen who woke up only to have her picture taken.

Doreen received many beautiful gifts including toys, clothing and a tall white candle decorated with pink dolls and angels and scaled from age one to twenty-one. It was burned down to age one on Sunday and will be put away to use for twenty years to come.

Among the toddlers present were Jeffrey Kaplan, Corinne Platt, Robert Friedman, Dana Wasserman, Danny Cohen, Susie and Larry Perlman, Leslie Fisher, Robyn Bigman and Dean and Darin Stone.

Mrs. Allred Married to Wyomian

A friendship of many years culminated in the marriage of Mrs. Arvilla Allred of Cathedral City and C. L. Carlberg of Thermopolis, Wyoming, that was solemnized February 18, at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist Church in Desert Hot Springs with Reverend Charles Harwood officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eisenmann attended the couple and present at the ceremony were Helene Pease and Chuck Eisenmann.

A wedding breakfast was held at Lindy Lou's in Palm Springs. Mrs. Carlberg, a nurse at Desert Hot Springs, has been a resident of Cathedral City for the past nine years.

The Carlbergs are making their home at the St. Francis Apartments on Third Street, in Cathedral City.

Mrs. Anderson Is Bride of Dan Weisberg

Ruby L. Anderson, long time resident of Cathedral City and employee of Sun-Air Theatre, was married on February 18, to Daniel D. Weisberg of Beaumont, where he is motion picture engineer at the Cherry Pass Drive-In Theatre. The two were married in the Edward Donahue home in Cathedral City, with Judge Eugene Theriau officiating at the late afternoon wedding. Giving his mother in marriage was Willen C. Anderson, who is a student at Valley College in San Bernardino.

Eleanor Donahue attended the bride and William Weisberg was best man for his brother.

The bride wore a silk chiffon gown of coral, with crystal beads and earrings that were the gifts of the groom.

Couples Celebrate Anniversaries

Double wedding anniversaries were celebrated when the Hector Woods, of Rancho Trailer Park, and the Walter Loupes, of Long Beach and Morongo Road, journeyed to the Safari Hotel in Scottsdale, Arizona. The couples spent a three-day weekend there while the Woods celebrated their 33rd and the Loupes their 21st anniversary.

They attended the horse races at Turf Paradise and the dog races. They visited clubs which made them feel right at home... The Mountain Shadow Club and the Tennis Club... and dined at the Black Angus and Ted Fio Rito's Black Sheep nightclub.

Riblets

Broiled savory lamb riblets get their tangy seasoning from a salad dressing mix. Combine one ¾-ounce package of dehydrated exotic herb salad dressing mix with 1-3 cup of salad oil, 2 tablespoons of vinegar and ¼ cup of tomato puree or sauce. Shake well and brush over 2 pounds of lamb ribs. Broil ribs 5 to 7 minutes on each side 3 to 4 inches from heat source, or until ribs are tender. Baste frequently during cooking. Serves 4.

Circus Deputies at Work

Los Angeles columnist Joan Winchell, who will be an active deputy for Desert Circus, was unable to be present but most of the gal deputies turned out for the cocktail buffet which High Sheriff Wilbur Clarke hosted in the Starlight Patio at El Mirador Thursday evening.

The deputies loaded their Desert Circus tote bags with immunity badges and deputy stars, subpoenas and tickets to the Silver Anniversary Ball and Kangaroo Court.

First big event for the deputies, who are already selling, will be the annual cocktail buffet at the Ranch Club and the Night on the Town next Wednesday night, March 1 when the entire group of Sheriffs and deputies will travel around town by bus, raiding the night spots and raising money for local charities.

Mac McDonald addressed the deputies and long time deputy Marj Pohl lent sage advice to the new deputies.

Sprague, who operates the Shell Shop in Florida, will exhibit shell craft. Mrs. Beula Multon will exhibit basket weaving made with pine needles and raffia. Careys Host Housewarming at Desert Braemar Home

Lesley and John Carey called it a "house hotting" when they invited friends for cocktails and dinner to add a spark to the already warm atmosphere of their new Gay 90's home at Desert Braemar.

Gay 90's pictures and fixtures blended with the Victorian furniture of their living rooms which housed an old melodeon (its sound is reminiscent of an organ) with an old-fashioned piano stool. Groups gathered about a nickelodeon in the lanai and accepted cocktails poured at a bar which had been fashioned from an old pot-bellied stove set in a cabinet between railed, four-foot slabs of lead, edge in nickel, to serve as a bar top. The unique bar is trimmed in white enamel and tiny pink roses. A bar was also set up on the patio, and banquet tables on the front lawn. Small braziers warmed the out-of-doors while Tex Kidwell, in Western attire, strolled among guests, strumming his guitar and singing Western tunes.

Jack Boyer was responsible for the Western-style chuckwagon which featured barbecued rack of lamb and beef, those wonderful oven-baked beans and apple pie à la mode. Among the Careys' guests were their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Scott from Chicago; George and Marcia Barrett with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fauls of Chicago; the Al Halls of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stedman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Milady with their daughter, Molly, all of Chicago; Messrs. and Mmes. Co Thornton, Ken Evans, William Reichel, Bill Rigney, James Morley, Mike Glass, Ed Houghton, Charles Wood and Mrs. and Mrs. Leslie Grams and Sam Salinger. Also, the Norman Walters, who were the former owners of the Carey home, and the Harold Parks of Desert Braemar and Alaska.

Soroptimists Hear Talk on Airport Bonds

Dudley M. Steele, who at one time operated the Burbank Air Terminal and is now a member of the Riverside County Airport Commission, was the guest speaker at this week's Soroptimist Club's meeting at the Biltmore Hotel. He spoke on the local Airport Bond Issue which residents will vote on, March 14.

Soroptimists Edna Alexroid of Laguna and LaVaughn Hokey of Coachella were guests at the meeting.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

By special arrangement with Dean Vincent ... all Washington's Birthdays are to be on Saturday from now on ... so we won't miss any more of those annual chuckwagon breakfasts ... which the Vincents hold each year on February 22 at their ranch home out on Rio del Sol ... The two hundred and some guests ... who are always fairly well divided between their Portland friends and their Palm Springs friends ... gather in western clothes ... drink gallons of fresh orange juice and line up with gusto for the Jack Boyer chuckwagon grub ... which they consume at long tables set out in the California sunshine ... Johnny Boyle wanders around strumming his guitar and singing ... and the whole thing has a reminiscent flavor of the early days of the ranchos ...

This year the host and Paul Pospesil collaborated to offer a unique form of entertainment ... roller coasting on the desert in a dunes buggy ... Some 30 of the guests ... including the adventurous Auntie Pearl McManus who loved the experience ... made the exciting trip in Paul's Volkswagen to the desert out beyond the Costello ranch ... where they swooped up and down the building - high sand dunes ... One of the desert's newest sports ... it has ardent devotees who are Sunday dunes - rollers ...

In the huge list of guests were a special dozen ... including the host and hostess ... who travel together ... Three years ago they went to the Orient ... a year and a half ago to the South Pacific ... and this summer they are planning a junket to Europe ... flying over the pole ... These long time friends are ... Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Val Quoidbach, Mrs. Myrna Nittinger, the Harry Paxtons, the Carl Lykkens and the Vincents ...

Auntie Pearl McManus was so intrigued with the whole idea ... that she entertained this group at luncheon at the Tennis Club the following day ...

Others at the chuckwagon brunch were ... the James

Kempers, Reuben Fleets, Fred Albertsons, J. H. Ballingers, Frank Benders ... Spencer Grants, Mell Eatons, Tony Burkes, M. O. Andersons, Fred Ingrams ... Ed Bishops, Edith and Dick Edwards, George Robersons, Gwen Costello, Helen and Bill Reichel ... Dorothy Hoover, Mrs. Roy Colegate ... the Frank Purcells, Chauncey Needhams, Kenneth Todds ... Dorothy and Ralph Dietz, Helen Kirk, Collis Steeres, Murray Marshes, Peg and Norm Waters ... Mr. and Mrs. Haig Harris, the Sidney Greenleafs ...

The Vincents' next door neighbors in Portland ... Richard Bowe and Dr. John Hastings ... flew down especially for the party ... Among other Portland friends at the party were the Harrison Spanglers, Leigh Martins, E. S. Thomases ... J. F. Kavanaghs, Sherman Lovells, Mrs. Roy Simmons Mrs. Carl Schram and Mr. and Mrs. June Jones ...

Others included Major and Mrs. Douglas Allen of Coronado ... Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Cortisoz ... and many, many more ...

improving ... but please ... no visitors and no flowers.

Jan King's mother Ruthie Kruidenier ... who has baked dozens of cookies for the Bob Hope cast and crew ... had a big surprise on her birthday when she received the "world's largest cookie" to "the World's Sweetest Cookie - Ruthie" from Bob Hope...

It all happened at El Mirador ... where daughter Jan (she's Hope's TV script secretary) had arranged a surprise ... When Mama Ruthie walked in with daughter Pat Wright ... she found a group of friends waiting to have dinner with her ...

There was a stack of birthday gifts ... a candle - lit birthday cake ... Tex Kidwell stopping by to sing the Birthday Song ... and Eddy Howard and his orchestra playing it too ... as the cake came in ... All this in addition to the biggest "ookie in the world ...

In the birthday party group were ... Auntie Pearl McManus, Vicki Malouf, Mrs. Wyn (Mrs. Jim) Hope, Evelyn Schiff and her houseguest Valerie de Moras ... Charlotte Hutchens, Nan Letherby Eileen Taylor and Pat's 11-year-old son Billy Wright ...

After the cocktail buffet ... which High Sheriff Wilbur Clarke hosted at El Mirador Thursday night ... for his gal deputies ... Jolie Gabor gave a western party at her Cahulla Hills home ... that was as much Hungarian as western ...

The red carpet was out for arriving guests ... and the Ranch Club's stagecoach stood in the doorway ... Indoors Jolie was receiving friends wearing her Gay 90's costume ... which she changed later to metallic western - style shorts and shirt ... A waitress and the piano player from the Naughty 90s Room lent atmosphere ... and there was a sprinkling of western costumes in the crowd ... with Viola and Raymond Loewy taking the prize (figuratively speaking) for the best costumes ...

Nancy Holmes was in gaucho attire with a red rose back of one ear under her gaucho hat ... Jeannie Barrett was a beauty in a white and gold western outfit and that smart Millie Considine was comfortable in a squaw dress the color of her eyes ...

I said it was confused ... Mollie and Charlie Berns of Club 21 ... had brought along a "21" table cloth that was draped across the bar ... and the food featured Hungarian goulash (Jeannie said her recipe was different) ... and Edmund played gypsy music on the violin (John Morris says Edmund plays too well ... for background music at a party) ...

The Frank Bogerts were there ... Marge and Jack Lambert and that huge Mickey Finn with High Sheriff Wilbur Clarke ... John Morris, Jimmy Morton, Edna Rothbart the Warner Gilmores ... and there were more ...

If you select fresh fruit for juice, remember fruit that is heavy for its size is likely to be the juiciest.

COOKIE BAKER, Mrs. Ruth Kruidenier, who has been baking goodies for years for the cast and crew of the Bob Hope Show, on which daughter Jan is script secretary, was the surprised recipient of the "World's Largest Cookie" sent to her on her birthday by Bob Hope. 'Operation Muster 1961'

National Guardsmen this week are commemorating the days when the Militia was mustered annually on the village green — that is, assembled and counted off, to see how many able-bodied men were available to bear arms in the event of an emergency.

The week of George Washington's birthday is appropriately selected as "Operation Muster 1961," for our first President began his illustrious public career as a citizen-soldier, a member of the militia in his home state of Virginia.

While we do not have a National Guard unit directly in Palm Springs, many residents belong to the active units in Indio and Banning. These two units are among the 3,000 Army and Air National Guard groups located in the 50 States, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

During this week, it would be a good idea for everyone to take a backward look at the accomplishments and sacrifices of National Guard units in past years, and to be thankful that they are a well trained fighting unit available in any emergency — present and future.

Air Travel Is Increasing

Air travel to Palm Springs is consistently increasing, and has become a vital part of the multi-million dollar tourist "industry." Without an airport here, the economy of the city would suffer a serious setback.

Both airlines currently serving Palm Springs are continually seeking to give better service because they recognize the importance of the Foremost Desert Resort of the World, as well as the Winter Golf Capital.

Just recently CAB Examiner William F. Cusick recommended that Western Air Lines be authorized to link Palm Springs directly with San Francisco-Oakland, and beyond to the Pacific Northwest, where a large number of our winter residents and visitors also have homes. A Civil Aeronautics Board decision in this matter is expected later this year.

Western was the first service here, with Bonanza now also providing direct flights to Phoenix and Los Angeles. An example of increased air traffic can easily be shown by Western's statistics of 4,339 passengers in its first year in 1946 to 17,110 last year—a 294 per cent increase.

Many of these visitors would go elsewhere if airport facilities were not here. On March 14 voters will have the opportunity to ensure that Palm Springs will continue to have an airport, by voting "yes" on the bond issue to purchase present facilities.

A "Yes" vote is a vote for progress.

The Great Game of War

EXERCISE WINTER SHEILD II, WEST GERMANY — The ghost walks — the ghost of General George Patton. All the older officers, from General Bruce (Battle of the Bulge) Clark on down keep saying: "Patton would have broken a commander who let his vehicles move so close together . . . Patton said . . . Patton always did it this way."

THE ACTORS CHANGE, but the play goes on. These are only war games between "NATO" and the "aggressor." There is mud without blood. There are live artillery shells, live napalm bombs and real strafing runs by aircraft, but the targets are inert and fleshless props. There is lots of profanity and very little sleep, but the only deaths are accidental and on Sunday morning everything halted so that the men could go to church. Nevertheless, you can see here that war has not been abolished, and you can surmise a couple of reasons why. Nobody "hates" war. Practically everybody loves it. Participation is exciting. Spending is prodigious. Memories are golden.

"PATTON SAID about this chaplain: 'The blanket - blank can't preach and he can't pray. Get the high-priced trisyllable out of my Army.'"

A frosted Colonel said: "Patton had a soft, almost feminine voice. That's why he used so much profanity."

WAR IS OLD - FASHIONED melodrama which everybody, from the box seats to the peanut gallery, can understand. Germany, which played the heavy villain in the 1940's, has become the threatened hero because of living so close to the Russian border.

Some cosmic make-up man, I'd almost swear, has been here with grease-paint and other cosmetics. From the air two decades ago, Germany, with its dark fir forests, looked black and criminal, the proper host of fiendish baby killers and truth distorters. Today, the snowy hillsides and quaint villages have a purity that goes with the new role.

These last are a defensive tactic, equivalent to World War II minefields, except that much larger areas are rendered death traps and contaminated for two or three days by atomic explosions. The favorite maneuver is to box the enemy in a "kill zone" and then atomize him in great numbers.

HAD WE USED atomic demolitions in Korea the Reds would never have been able to come down the historic invasion corridors. It's doubtful if the Russians could cross Western Europe if we decided to contaminate traditional military routes with atomic materials which are available to our Army Engineers but which our moralizing allies regard with pious horror.

This holier-than-Yanks attitude appears to be in the best European taste of the season, a German officer told me that his country had done just right in permitting atomic weapons to be installed there, while leaving the atomic warheads wholly in American hands. Why? Because to possess anything so terrible would sully the new German peace-loving, hate-Nazi role.

GERMAN DEFENSE Minister Strauss, in a press conference, came at the same idea from a different angle. He said that it would take some time for the German military to regain "prestige" and become socially acceptable around the Federal Republic. Well, it's a bit thick, isn't it?

GERMAN DEFENSE Minister Strauss, in a press conference, came at the same idea from a different angle. He said that it would take some time for the German military to regain "prestige" and become socially acceptable around the Federal Republic. Well, it's a bit thick, isn't it?

It's this is the country which first used poison gas, bombed civilian populations, lobbed the unguided buzz-bombs into London.

But today the USA is cast as the fall guy of the endless drama of war. If anybody is to use nuclear weapons in Europe, with all the stigma of the implication, we're to do it. The shame is already upon us because Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

IT'S ALSO SURPRISING to the visitor to West Europe to learn what the Europeans expect of NATO. By now, with a Russian invasion no longer considered feasible or probable, a common market and a political union of NATO countries are all the rage.

There is a new military use in prospect for the famous U.S. Seventh Army. I first heard it last summer in Brussels when Belgian civilians came reeling home from the Congo. Since coming here this time I have heard it from French officers and newsmen. "The Yanks are coming — to Africa!" Yes, because Belgium and France see no sense using bayonets to sit on. Send them to restore the legitimate European government in the Congo and Algeria! Next, I suppose, Portugal will want us in the rebellious colony of Angola.

In a celebrated literary phrase — "Where will it all end, knows God."

This Side of The Sun

Now they're debating Which place has more heat? And the figures reveal That we can't be beat.

Beneficial heat, I mean. The kind that comes in the winter when it's cold outside. Outside of Palm Springs, that is.

THIS ALL STARTED when W. H. Price of 3710 Calle de Carlos and also a resident of Seattle became involved in a debate with some friends of the northwest who said that the place to thaw out was in Arizona.

Now, that's a good place, all right, but Price believed that his choice of Palm Springs for the winter stay was better. So he started a temperature chart, comparing the daily temperatures here with those of Phoenix and Tucson.

HIS CHARTS show that with the exception of one day, Palm Springs had a higher maximum than either of the other two.

On that one day, January 26, Palm Springs and Phoenix were tied.

Price, who is a forest consultant in Washington state and lives in Seattle, said he started the charts when friends from the north west scoffed when he pointed out the warmth value of our desert as compared to the Arizona desert.

"Now," he said, "I have proof."

PRICE SUGGESTED another idea. He pointed out that during the recent Palm Springs Golf Classic the Chamber of Commerce maintained a big score board at the Desert Inn grounds.

"Why not," he asked, "maintain a similar scoreboard on temperatures?"

It's a good idea. Everybody is always talking about the weather and often getting into arguments.

All they'd have to do would be to look at the board.

CONNECTICUT, the first state to utilize plain - clothes cars and traffic officers and thereby greatly reduced its highway toll, is trying out another idea to lessen fatalities.

State police experimented with the efficacy of multi - flora hedges as road dividers. At varying speeds and angles, a car is slowed from 30 miles per hour to five crashing a single row of roses.

Highway officials think that a double row would just about be perfect.

This safety barrier is much cheaper than concrete or steel rails and makes a beautiful highway.

Now if they used some taller shrubbery it would also end the menace of glaring headlights coming at you.

I LIKE NAMES that go with occupations. President of the new Sunrise Bowling League at Palm Springs Lanes is Arthur Lickers. And you know his job? Seeing to it that patrons of the Ocotillo Lodge are served their beverages.

DICK WEST:

World We Live In

WASHINGTON IN — As several hundred thousand social historians already have observed, it's a changing world we live in. Almost everywhere you look, the status is rapidly unquoting.

This is particularly true in Washington, which has a somewhat rootless population and is more responsive than most cities to the shifting sands of time.

ABOUT A YEAR ago, for instance, I compiled a research paper on status seeking in the U.S. capital. It told how federal employees at four levels of the government could be recognized by their status symbols.

I was looking over this list recently and I found that it already is out of date. The advent of the Kennedy administration has introduced a whole new set of status symbols that need to be identified and catalogued.

Education: Harvard degrees are "in." Johns Hopkins is "out," as are most state universities, particularly in the Midwest.

Neighborhoods: Georgetown is "in" in a big way. Spring Valley is "out." The Virginia suburbs are "in" but the Maryland suburbs are "out."

MEDICINE: MALE doctors are "out." Women doctors are "in." Back troubles are "in," but heart ailments are "out." Ulcers can be either "in" or "out" depending on what caused them. Athlete's foot is "in."

Art: Amateur painting is "out." Abstracts are "in" but landscapes and portraits are "out." So is Grandma Moses.

Families: Small families are "out;" big families "in." Grandchildren are "out."

VACATIONS: PALM Beach and Cape Cod are "in." New-

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a husband who chews? I only see him on Sundays and I can never talk to him because his mouth is so full. When we go for a drive and I ask him a question, he has to stop the car. Let me hear from other wives who have tobacco chewing husbands. I am at the end of my rope.

CHEWER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: A tobacco chewer will give up his wife before he will give up his cud. If he chews when you married him — surrender. If this is something new, beg, bribe, punish him or kill him with kindness, but let him know how much you detest this habit — and pray he gives it up.

DEAR ABBY: I have a daughter by a former marriage. The man I married also had a daughter by a former marriage. (His wife died.) When introducing the girls, is it proper for me to say, "Meet my daughter and my step-daughter?" I think it sounds terrible, but how will people know which one is mine and which one is his?

MOTHER IN DOUBT

DEAR MOTHER: I is not proper to identify one of the girls as "your own" and the other as a "step-daughter." On introducing them, say, "These are OUR daughters." If anyone has the bad manners to pry into their parentage, you can explain.

DEAR ABBY: I am having a terrible time trying to convince my mother that her old-fashioned ideas about dating are not right for this day and age. She says if a boy asks you to a school dance and you tell him you are going out of town or something, you can't show up with another fellow. This means a girl has to accept the first boy who asks her, whether he's a drip or not, or else stay home. Abby, please tell my mom in your column that times have changed.

A MODERN GIRL DEAR MOTHER: "Times" may have changed, but the feelings of people remain the same. If you don't care to go with a boy, thank him and say you are "busy." His feelings will be spared and you will be free to go with someone else, should you be asked. If you say you'll be "out of town or something," you'll prove yourself to be a liar — and a pretty sneaky one at that.

DEAR ABBY: You are to be commended for the letters on mental illness you ran in your column. In those letters I saw so clearly the attitude of society, which makes it so difficult for the emotionally disturbed to recover.

I had ten years of emotional trouble and was one of the lucky ones whose family stood by me. I wonder how many people know anything of the dark and horrible world of a mentally ill person lives in. There are no words to describe the fear and terror. And then the hurt they receive when trying to recover and they become aware of the strange things they did during their illness.

Society has done a good job in making the mental patient ashamed. Too much cannot be said about the attitude of the public concerning mental illness. If ever a human needs understanding and patience, it is the one who is in the dark and lonely world of mental illness. I lived there — and I know.

WITH GOD'S HELP "RECOVERED—" Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ALSTON PLANS SET LINEUP THIS YEAR

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Dodger manager Walter Alston, who has more platoon material than a Marine drill sergeant, indicated today he may lean more toward a set lineup this year, although he hasn't the vaguest idea what it will be.

"We'll platoon more against individual pitchers and take into consideration different parks and who's hot rather than use a strict lineup of right-handers against left-handed pitching and vice versa," Alston said.

"RIGHT NOW, I couldn't begin to make a lineup. The three outfielders I leave out today might be the ones I would want three weeks from now. But this is a pleasant problem and I'm not concerned in the least."

On a straight platoon basis, Alston could start an all right-handed lineup consisting of outfielders Tommy Davis, Frank Howard and Don Demter, Charlie Smith or Jim Gilliam at third, Maury Wills at short, Charlie Neal at second, Gil Hodges at first and Norm Sherry or Doug Camilli behind the plate.

ALSTON ALSO could call on a

City to Welcome Angels

Public Invited To Event

Palm Springs rolls out the red carpet tomorrow morning for the Los Angeles American League Angels when Mayor Frank Bogert, vice mayor Kenneth Kirk, chairman of the Desert Angels Committee, and Chamber of Commerce dignitaries will present the keys to the Polo Grounds to the visitors, here for the first Major League spring training season in Palm Springs.

The ceremonies are scheduled for 10 a.m. at the pitcher's mound at the Polo Grounds.

IT WILL ALSO be Photo Day and top brass of the Angels plus all of the players who are already here, will be present to pose for news and news agency cameras, newsreel photographers and just ordinary shutterbugs.

Admission to the Polo Grounds will be free tomorrow for all who want to view the ceremonies.

THE ANGELS BEGAN formal spring training today in what manager Bill Rigney believes is "the finest spring training park I've ever seen."

The team Friday checked out uniforms and staged an informal drill under blue skies and in 74-degree weather.

OLD PROS TED Kluszewski, Bob Cerv and Eddie Yost led a lively drill under the watchful eye of Rigney and coaches Red Kress, Bob Elliott and Mary Grissom.

Kluszewski blasted the ball 370 feet over the right field screen in his first trip to the plate. Cerv later drilled two in a row over the left field fence.

Meanwhile, second baseman Ken Aspromonte signed his 1961 player contract for an estimated $14,000 after a meeting with Angels general manager Fred Haney.

RIGNEY, who has been here for a week and at the Polo Grounds every day mapping plans for the drills, plans one long training session a day starting at 10 a.m.

The Angels open the spring training exhibition schedule against the Chicago Cubs March 11 and, according to Harry Voelker, in charge of the DAC office, the games will be a sell-out.

Rookie Drivers Blamed for Race Accidents

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Veteran stock car drivers aiming at Sunday's 500-mile Daytona race today blamed untested rookie drivers for two accident-packed qualifying races which hospitalized three men and made total wrecks of seven cars.

One of the pair of 100-mile events had to be halted at the 95-mile mark Friday because of two simultaneous crashes. The other finished, but just barely, as there was a three-car crash on the final turn.

Joe Weatherly, a Norfolk, Va., veteran, won the second event in a 1961 Pontiac with a record speed of 132.671 miles per hour. This wiped out the former mark of 146.520 held by Jack Smith of Spartanburg, S. C.

SC, UCLA CONTINUE SKID DOWNWARD

By United Press International

Nobody could be quite sure just which was the top basketball team on the Coast today—or for that matter, even in the city of Los Angeles.

While Southern California and UCLA continued skidding downward, three other teams continued bowling over opposition in dazzling style and appeared ready to challenge the Trojans' and Bruins' supremacy.

USC FELL BEFORE Oregon State, 62-58, Friday night at Corvallis. The loss — second straight for the Trojans — was sure to jeopardize USC's number six national rating.

Troy was hurt by lack of height as John Rudometkin tallied 20, but was unable to put the clamps on 6-foot-10 inch Karl Anderson, who also scored 20. Jay Carty added 15 for the Beavers.

The Trojans, now 16-5 on the season, get another shot at the Beavers tonight.

Prove It Given Favorite's Role At Santa Anita

ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI) — It was Prove It against the field today as 11 horses prepared to go to the post in the 24th running of the $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap, one of America's top racing classics.

Rarely in the history of the 1 1/2 mile stakes had a colt captured the public's imagination as has Prove It. Although he has been racing for less than a year, Prove It was expected to be one of the shortest priced favorites ever to start in the Handicap.

Saddled with only 115 pounds, ridden by skilled Willie Shoemaker, Prove It, in the opinion of virtually every handicapper needed only to stay out of trouble to put away the race that highlights the winter meeting.

United Press International
NEW YORK — UPI — Desilu has another potential TV series in the making out in Hollywood. "Counter Intelligence Corps" is the title, and the first step is the filming of a two-parter entitled "The Shadows of the Sphinx." Oscar Homolka is the guest star. It will be recalled that Desilu's highly successful "The Untouchables" skein started out (but that one without design) as a two-part story. The new one is for next fall.

THE NATION's most famous refrigerator opener, Betty Furness, who was a network commercial fixture for years before she finally resigned her sponsor last fall. She is the moderator of a new program called "At Your Beck and Call" from 1 to 2:30 p.m. (EST) daily. Viewers phone in questions on a variety of subjects while the show is on the air and they are answered by experts on a panel.

Nothing New In Art, See New Exhibit

Can Be Any

One woman's answer to the complaint that "There's nothing new in art" will be given public expression at the Playhouse Gallery in Deep Well, where Marianne Werfel Rieser's "Three-Dimensional Canvases" will be shown from Feb. 28 through March 6.

Instead of canvas, Mrs. Rieser chooses for her backgrounds anything whose texture pleases her—and she has the courage to regard anything she can mold with her hands as art material. The result is a fascinating technique which combines the best of the rich pigments which have been used by artists of the past with a sculptured bas-relief effect.

"EVERY ARTIST has a hard time explaining why he chose or created a new form or medium to express himself," Mrs. Rieser said, adding, "I don't think individual art can be explained."

"I believe our time has invented more words about art and art forms than art itself. I don't want to become lost in the wilderness of these words—or to belong to one or the other they specify. I am neither an objectivist nor a non-objectivist, realist, surrealist, abstract expressionist or primitivist, nor do I belong to any of the contemporary cults. My art comes from one source only—visualizing things into things, or things out of things."

BEGINNING WORK on a three-dimensional, Mrs. Rieser makes several sketches before assembling varied materials onto a formica, marbleboard, or similar background. The completed sculptured work is then painted in oils. She works very rapidly and completes a work in two or three days.

Before turning to art, Mrs. Rieser was a noted playwright in Europe and is the sister of Franz Werfel, author of "Song of Bernadette."

Has joined the Junior B'nai B'rith in 1932, became director of the B'nai B'rith's Youth Organization, District 1, in 1938. He served with a bomber unit in the South Pacific during World War II.

EVER HEAR OF AN eavesdropping zebra? Well, there's one sure enough in the Safari Room at Ray Ryan's El Mirador Hotel (thanks to Muralist John Morris). Can't blame the zebra much for eavesdropping on Actor William Holden regaling Palm Springs Mayor on the excitement and drama of an East African Safari. Holden, vacationing at El Mirador, spent December and January at his and Ray Ryan's Mount Kenya Safari Club in Kenya, East Africa. (Conrad Hug Photo)

David Bond, whose religious recordings: "Words for the World" have been widely broadcast over the globe daily for the past few years, is scheduled to speak on the Baha'i World Faith at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendershot, 1975 El Oro Way, at 8 p.m., Saturday.

He is an actor, writer, director-producer, active in all areas of theatre including TV, motion pictures and stage. Presently bringing the classics to Los Angeles and its environs with his Hollywood Shakespeare Festival, he is presenting: "Love's Labors," "King John," "Two Gentlemen of Verona," "Comedy of Errors," and "Timon of Athens" during the current season.

Bond, notwithstanding his busy professional life, takes time to teach and lecture for the Baha'i World Faith throughout the Southern California area. At the Saturday evening meeting, he will discuss the universal meaning of the rapidly changing events and the future course of our modern era.

The public is invited to attend and participate in the discussion.

'Religion, Literature' To Be Topic

Unitarian Group To Start New Series Sunday

"Religion and Contemporary Literature" is the title of a new series being inaugurated tomorrow for Palm Springs Unitarian Fellowship. The liberal religious group is now meeting at 11 a.m., Sunday, in the board room of the Chamber of Commerce.

The new study and discussion series will be followed on subsequent Sundays over the next few weeks. It deals with the religious significance of everything from contemporary novels to newspaper reporting.

Tape recordings and readings during these programs will cover the religious philosophies expressed by prominent novelists and poets of today, as well as the problems of the American press when religious intolerance makes headlines.

This Sunday's initial program in the series brings to light the spiritual leanings found in the novels of William Faulkner and several other modern novelists. Unitarian Fellowship program chairman is Mrs. David Hamilton. Mrs. Charles Sakin is hospitality chairman, handling arrangements for the coffee hour that climaxes each Unitarian meeting.

Simultaneously with the adult Fellowship programs, the Unitarian Church School for children is held each Sunday morning. For information on the enrollment of children in the school, parents are invited to telephone Mrs. Robert Schnabel at 325-3428.

Instruction this quarter continues in science, literature and the world's religions. In addition, there is an art class under the direction of talented local artist Christine Ranes.

witz of Temple Isaiah, Mayor Frank Bogert, Rev. Frederick Barnhill of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church and Rev. James Arnold of Cathedral City Community Church. (Desert Sun Photo)

DR. VINCENT BENNETT, evangelist and author, will address the second annual banquet of the Christian Business Men's Committee of the Palm Springs Desert Area, at 7 p.m., Monday, in the Palm Springs Community Church. A $2 donation for the banquet will be used for the Christian Elementary School.

'Christ Jesus' To Be Science Lecture Sunday

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches. The Golden Text is from Isaiah (28:16), "Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation."

How the application of Christ Jesus' teaching to daily living brings increased blessings to mankind will be emphasized in the sermon.

A SCRIPTURAL citation from Luke's Gospel records that when Jesus "was in a certain city, he beheld a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean."

"And immediately the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: . . . But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities" (5:12-15).

MARY BAKER EDDY writes in a correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Christ, Truth, was demonstrated through Jesus to prove the power of Spirit over the flesh, — to show that Truth is made manifest by its effects upon the human mind and body, healing sickness and destroying sin" (p. 316).

Minor Western Fencing Battle Erupts Before School Board

A minor western fencing battle erupted politely before the Palm Springs Unified School District board this week, when attorney Arnold Rumwell appeared to request the board to fence the side and rear yard of the house of his

Washday Blues

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Forty-nine items of laundry equipment, from clothes boilers to wooden spoons, and about 20 kinds of laundry supplies were recommended for doing the family laundry only 40 years ago.

Laundry was done in the kitchen so that water and clothes could be heated on the cookstove and the "washing" could be worked in with other household chores. This was the procedure outlined in a U.S. Department of Agriculture bulletin issued in 1919.

secretary, Miss Virginia Corcoran. The problem, Rumwell said, is that the Corcoran house is two feet or less from the walkway easement from the edge of the Agua Caliente school site in the California Dream Homes to the west. Youngsters dash past her house with abandon — and sometimes on both sides, Rumwell said. He asserted the school district had created the nuisance.

NOT SO, REPLIED board member Robert Schlesinger, a fellow attorney. Board member Bert

Lamb pointed out that the easement was recorded long before the school site was purchased.

"If we fenced her yard, it could lead to requests for fencing bus stops and lots of places where kids gather," Lamb said. He motioned for denial. No second was offered for the motion.

"I'm not sure there isn't a legal responsibility here," Rumwell said. Attorney Schlesinger couldn't see it.

THE BOARD AGREED with Rumwell the county erred in permitting a building permit two feet from the easement.

"The easement was for a shopping center originally," Lamb said. Rumwell said it might have been a ruse to obtain a higher appraised value.

"Get all you can from a public body is a common rule," Rumwell explained. Board members still laughing—voted 4-1 against the fence.
